01 PROFILE

I am a full-stack developer, AI enthusiast, and designer with expertise in ReactJS, Flask, MongoDB, and machine learning. I have built AI-powered applications. My projects include Vastra, a funded e-commerce platform and a real-time disaster information system. I am passionate about database engineering, UI/UX design, and human-AI alignment research. With experience in public speaking and event anchoring, I excel at communicating complex ideas. Currently, I am pursuing my B.Tech
